

CONVERSATION		DESCRIPTION	CHAIR	MAIN SPEAKER	RESPONDERS / PANEL	PANEL
1	The Lie of the Land	How climate change and food security will drive future land use in Scotland	David Miller Knowledge Exchange Coordinator, The James Hutton Institute	Hugh Raven Chair of Scotland’s Moorland Forum & MD of Ardtornish Etsate	Dr Charles Warren Geography and Sustainable Development, University of St Andrews	Megan Rowland Land and Deer Manager
					Patrick Krause CEO Scottish Crofting Federation	Megan MacInnes Land Commissioner, Scottish Land Commission
						Andrew Whitley Baker, author, co-founder of the Real Bread Campaign and Scotland The Bread.
2	Soil & Growth	The science and ecology of soil: carbon emissions and carbon capture explained	Prof Marc Metzger Environment and Society, Edinburgh University	Pete lanetta Research Leader Agroecology, The James Hutton Institute	Bob Reid Director of Development , Wildland Ltd.	Dr Mads Fischer-Moller Food Policy, Rural Economy, Environment and Society, Scotland's Rural College
					Willie McGhee Forest Policy Group	Prof Bob Rees Head of Carbon Management Centre, Scotland’s Rural College
						Nikki Yoxall Beef farmer, Howemill & Grampian Graziers
3	Ecosystems & Energy	Promoting biodiversity: the role of natural resources and renewable energy	Prof Dan Van der Horst Environment, Energy & Society, Edinburgh University	Nicholas Gubbins CEO Community Energy Scotland	Caroline Drummond CEO LEAF (Linking Environment And Farming)	Jim Birley Scottish Wood & ASHS
					Alison Hester, Senior Scientist and Baillie Gifford Entrepreneurial Research Fellow, The James Hutton Institute	Jeremy Leggett Solarcentury & Bunloit Wildland
						Adrian Leoning Mór Hydro Ltd.
4	Natural Benefits	Nature’s impact on health: creating inclusive local economies	Francesca Osowska CEO NatureScot	Dr Sarah-Anne Munoz Acting Head of Division of Rural Health and Wellbeing, University of the Highlands and IslandsUniversity of Edinburgh	Dr Rehema White Geography and Sustainable Development, University of St Andrews	Kevin Lafferty Health policy advisor, Scottish Forestry
					Andrew McCornick Beef and sheep farmer, Dumfries	Naveed Bakhsh Boots & Beards
						Lynn Cassells Lynbreck Croft
5	New Rural Economy	Changing economic patterns: reimagining where we live and work	Prof Deborah Roberts Deputy Chief Executive & Executive Director Science, The James Hutton Institute	Magnus Davidson Environmental Research Institute, University of the Highlands and Islands	Neil Sutherland Director & owner MAKAR Ltd	Prof Ronald MacDonald The Adam Smith Business School at Glasgow University
					Dennis Overton Sea farmer & Chair, Scotland Food & Drink	Guy Watt Forest industry economist
						Duncan Bryden Bryden Assoc.
6	A Story for the Future	Art and community: hard facts alone don’t win the argument.	Chris Dalglish Director, Institute for Heritage & Sustainable Human Development	Sophie Cooke Poet, novelist, and short story writer	Prof Lorna Dawson Head of Soil Forensic Group, James Hutton Institute, SEFARI Gateway KE Lead for Environment	Andrew Whitley Baker, author, co-founder of the Real Bread Campaign and Scotland The Bread.
				Rachel Marsh Author & creative writing teacher	Dr Calum MacLeod Policy director, Community Land Scotland	